

The Awards reward and recognise individuals and organisations that have made a noteworthy contribution during the current year, and/or give an outstanding service over a number of years, to the Pinnaroo community, over and above normal employment duties.

Eligibility Criteria

- Nominees must be Australian citizens
- Awards will not be granted posthumously
- Self nominations will not be accepted
- Nominees for the category of Young Citizen of the Year must be 30 years of age or less on 26 January in the year of the award presentation and must be at least 16 years of age in the year of the award presentation
- Elected members of council will be considered for work undertaken in addition to their official duties
- Unsuccessful nominees may be re-nominated in subsequent years
- Groups of people, organisations or couples will not normally be eligible for Citizen of the Year and Young Citizen of the Year, though in exceptional cases the selection panel reserves the right to consider such nominations.
- Both individuals and organisations should be considered for the Community Event of the Year as this recognises the organising body or committee responsible for the event

Selection Criteria

In choosing the recipients of the Australia Day Citizen of the Year Awards, regard is given to the nominee's achievements in the year immediately prior to receiving the award, as well as their past achievements and ongoing contribution to the community. The selection criteria for Citizen of the Year and Young Citizen of the Year are:

- Significant contribution to the community

The selection criteria for Community Event of the Year are;

"a community group of four or more people"

- The quality of the event
- The scope of impact the event has on the local government area
- The event's contribution to the community
