Interment Right Conditions

1. All Interment Rights are granted in perpetuity. The cost of the Interment Right can be found at https://www.southernmallee.sa.gov.au/council-services/cemeteries/cemetery-information. Payments can be made by cash, card or extended Payment terms may be available from the cemetery authority [Council]for the purchase of a burial or memorial interment right.

2. The Interment Right Certificate will be issued to the Interment Right Holder/s by the Cemetery Authority after payment of the relevant fees

3. The Interment Right cost does not cover other services such as grave digging, burial, chapel, Funeral Director, headstone or memorial expenses

4. An interment right may be cancelled or transferred in accordance with the Burial and Cremation Act on compliance with any conditions set out in the cemetery authority's operating policy.

5. The rights granted to the Interment Right Holder may be exercised upon the death of the Interment Right Holder by the personal representative of the Interment Right Holder. If there is no personal representative of the Interment Right Holder then the interment right may be exercised by the spouse or domestic partner of the deceased Interment Right Holder. If there is no surviving spouse or domestic partner, the interment right may be exercised by the eldest living relative of the deceased Interment Right Holder in the following descending order of priority:
   (a) a child
   (b) a grandchild or great-grandchild
   (c) a brother or sister
   (d) a parent
   (e) a grandparent
   (f) an aunt or uncle
   (g) a nephew or niece
   (h) a cousin
   (i) any other blood relative

6. If an interment right is held by more than 1 person, it may be exercised or enforced jointly or severally.

7. No Interment, including Ashes Interment, shall take place without a valid Interment Right.

8. The Interment Right Holder is responsible for maintaining memorials (including monuments and headstones) in a safe and proper condition. This is not the Cemetery Authority's responsibility. Under the Burial and Cremation Act, the cemetery authority has the power to require repair, removal or reinstatement of an unsafe memorial by the owner of the memorial.

9. Cemeteries have specific requirements regarding the design of memorials. Authorisation from the cemetery authority will be required prior to installation.

10. It is the responsibility of the Interment Right Holder to keep the cemetery authority advised of their current address.

11. Burial and memorial Interment Rights are subject to the conditions noted in this statement and any cemetery rules or relevant laws in force during the term of the interment right

12. Please note that the cemetery's interment right conditions, policy and rules may change over time. Updated versions are available from the cemetery or on the website, www.southernmallee.sa.gov.au
