Executive Summary

The CEO Performance Review Panel Terms of Reference provide for a review of its own performance and self-assessment. The purpose of this report is to present the findings of the self-assessment survey completed by members of the CEO Performance Review Panel.

RECOMMENDATION

That CEO Performance Review Panel self-assessment survey results be received and noted.

COMMITTEE RESOLUTION

Moved: Cr Rebecca Boseley

Seconded: Cr Jeffrey Nickolls

That CEO Performance Review Panel self-assessment survey results be received and noted.

Background

The CEO Performance Review Panel was established, and Term of Reference adopted in Council's May 2020 meeting.

Context

The CEO Performance Review Panel's Term of Reference require that:

14.8 At least once in its term, review its own performance to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend changes it considers necessary to the Council for approval.

At the CEO Performance Review Panel meeting on 30 March 2021, the Panel resolved that:

That the CEO Performance Review Panel will assess their own performance in September following the completion of the CEO's next review.

This was the first self-assessment of this committee and was completed via an electronic survey that was distributed to members on 11 November 2021 and closed on 17 November 2021.

Questions in the self-assessment were designed to respond to the panel's key functions as outlined in the Terms of Reference in addition to seeking other feedback in relation to the general operations of the Panel. The aim is to ensure that the Panel is operating at maximum effectiveness and also provides an opportunity to recommend any changes to Council that are considered necessary.

A consolidated summary of the responses with comments (which are anonymous) has been included in attachment 1.

Overall, feedback was positive about the general performance of the committee and its members. The complete survey results with comments are included in attachment 2.

There appears to be some appetite for training to assist elected members to appropriately deal with employment matters and human resource processes and Council administration will explore what opportunities are available in this capacity.

Policy and statutory implications

Whilst there is no policy or statutory requirement, the completion of a self-assessment survey for the CEO Performance Review Panel, reviewing own performance is also part of the panel's terms of reference.

Issues

This was the first self-assessment completed by the CEO Performance Review Panel. The process was simple and effective.

The survey was sent out later than first anticipated, due the remuneration review process not being completed until early November 2021.

Alternate options

Regular annual reviews and self-assessment are considered good practice and complies with the Strategic Management Plan – Goal 4 Organisational: Effective Governance and organisational efficiencies.

The CEO Performance Review Panel should consider known and transparent self-assessment rather than anonymous self-assessment. Given that the Panel is a small group of elected members, there is not much gained through anonymity.

Financial implications

There are no direct financial implications with this report. Elected members were provided with mandatory finance training when elected however it has been suggested that members could ben

Work Health and Safety and Risk implications

There are no work, health and safety implications with this report.

Consultation

The Panel were consulted in the implementation and process followed in the self-assessment.

Executive summary

The CEO Performance Review Panel will have a discussion regarding the CEO Remuneration Review.

Discussion Summary

The strong consensus of the panel members was that Council is obligated to base its decision on the CEO's remuneration review on the outcome of the performance review. Therefore the panel agreed that they still supported their original recommendation.

It was however, felt that the discussion of the CEO's contract term did need further consideration and was better had a later date when other factors could also be taken into consideration (e.g. if an application to complete an Australian Company Directors course is received).

The CEO's KPIs were revisited and, as per the resolution at Council's November meeting, the course is to be removed as a KPI and can be dealt as a separate item once an application has been received.

The CEO will be notified in writing of these decisions once an outcome on the remuneration has been finalised.
